Talent Technology products available in Australia!

Vancouver, BC – August 10, 2009 - Talent Technology Corporation announced today it will have Adventus act on its behalf in Australia to promote and sell the HireDesk Applicant Tracking System. HireDesk is an innovative SaaS (Software as a Service) solution helping HR departments and recruiting firms hire better people faster. HireDesk is used by many progressive Australian corporations and recruiting firms to drive down the manual tasks associated with hiring and recruiting top talent.

"We are confident HireDesk will make a difference in the lives of recruitment firm owners and HR professionals, allowing them to focus on achieving their objectives rather than worrying about productivity," says Nick Tsaousidis, Managing Director for Adventus. "HireDesk has proved to be an incredibly responsive organization and we look forward to working with them to create a community of HireDesk users."

"This partnership brings together two first-class organizations with complementary resources and a shared commitment to excellence." said Jade Bouelle, CEO for Talent Technology Corp. "Adventus is achieving amazing success in a very specialized marketplace and we are very excited to work with them to support their growth. We are confident that HireDesk's award-winning solution will help Australian based companies meet their business objectives with the tools they need to streamline their recruiting efforts."
